

“Surfaris use real boards not just foam boards and you’ve got whole days when you can just surf! I learned a lot about the beach and the tides and how to protect myself in the surf. Awesome week!”

{Kate Alexander Warnambool, Victoria }

“...I had one of the best weeks of my life...everything was perfect... the food the weather, the company and of course the waves. I am now completely hooked...”

{Daniel Griffiths, Manchester, UK }

Our remote location in National Parks is renowned for its world-class surf breaks, beautifully ancient land, breathtaking seascapes, and abundance of wildlife.

SURFING

When learning to surf with Surfaris, we teach you more than just the basics. We teach you what it means to become a surfer. From ocean awareness, swell forecasting, wind patterns & tides, to surfboard design, surf etiquette and of course – riding waves. As a complete novice you will start at the beginning, and be given a helping hand in the water. But as the days go by, you will be able to gain the skills to go surfing independently on your own. You will spend full days, on the beach and in the water, focusing on the theory and practice of surfing, each day gaining more ocean knowledge, developing your board skills and your understanding of the ocean. Our coaches will be surfing with you every step of the way.

THE SURF BREAKS

Surfaris has access to 12 different surf breaks all within 30 min drive of our surf camp including our beach out the front of our surf camp. Every morning, like real surfers, we check conditions and surf the best break to suit those conditions. This means we could be surfing a beautiful Point Break one day and an amazing Back Beach the next or 4WD up the beach to find a perfect sand bank, your progression will develop faster.

We are much more than a day school because of the way we can : WORK WITH MOTHER NATURE AND TOUR AROUND TO MANY LOCATIONS. WE DO NOT STAY JUST AT ONE SPOT.
